The Joyce Choice planned my husband's entire surprise, luau birthday party! From catering to finding the best bartender, our evening couldn't have gone smoother. And it might be all the Piña coladas, but they knocked our décor out of the park! They went above and beyond and simply helped make my simple event so great!

Dara was phenomenal, and don't get me started on her charming husband. From the moment we booked our holiday party, Dara was readily available. She coordinated my entire brunch like it was nothing, surprised me with a few things, and had my house looking like a movie set. They showed up early to decorate, which assured me that I had made the right decision. I've already hired them again for my niece's baby shower.
